

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hey Hey Hey Fat Albert Is Back!

Entertainment Rights names Lisa Marks & Associates
North American Licensing & Merchandising Agent for Iconic Character
FAT ALBERT

NEW YORK, N.Y. June 21, 2004. Following Entertainment Rights' (ER) recent acquisition of the classic animated Filmation Library, ER announced today that it has appointed Lisa Marks and Associates, Inc. (LMA) to represent the iconic Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids property. LMA will be the exclusive representative for licensing and merchandising the Fat Albert brand in North America and is working closely with ER to develop an innovative licensing, merchandising and promotional program to extend the reach of this popular brand.

Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids was created by Bill Cosby and is based on his own childhood growing up in a Philadelphia neighborhood where he and his friends learnt life's daily lessons in a tough urban environment. The show, a consistent ratings winner, ran on CBS TV for 12 consecutive years from 1972 to 1984 and was re-syndicated in 1989. This established brand with its high awareness and time-tested values also has a strong connection to today's young, hip consumer.

Fat Albert has achieved cult status in the US where a previous range of exclusive high quality licensed merchandise achieved tremendous success. US licensees and retailers are now keen to see the extension of this brand offering. ER, with their partner LMA, will capitalize on this interest by rolling-out an exciting new range of products, initially targeting the specialty market. Product launch is planned for 4th quarter 2004. This will coincide with the eagerly anticipated Christmas release of the 20th Century Fox, live-action major motion picture - 'Fat Albert' the movie. The movie, starring Kenan Thompson, Jermaine Williams, Jeremy Suarez, and directed by Joel Zwick ("My Big Fat Greek Wedding"), will ensure that this classic character is given mass exposure across all media throughout North America.

Mike Heap, Chief Executive Officer of Entertainment Rights, said: " Fat Albert holds a special place in the hearts and minds of American audiences and I am delighted that Fat Albert will be the first of the recently acquired Filmation Library of classic properties to be promoted by ER in the US. We're also delighted to be working with LMA given their expertise in developing and building entertainment properties and brands in the US marketplace. With the guidance of the Cosby Organisation and the experience of LMA, our consumer products roll out is sure to be a huge success.

Alongside the consumer products roll out, we plan to capitalize on the show's incredible popularity by relaunching the original Fat Albert series on television and releasing for the first time ever - classic Fat Albert on DVD. Fat Albert has a strong moral message which is highly appropriate to the world we live in."

Lisa Marks, President of LMA, Inc. commented: "We are very excited to partner with ER in the continued development of the Fat Albert brand. Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids are uniquely endearing characters, and we look forward to developing products that allow consumers to connect with and enjoy these characters further."
